WARNING ABOUT PURCHASE

OF CERTAIN FOREIGN BONDS Washington, Nov. 6.—American investors are warned tenight by the commorce departments to exercise care in purchasing foreign bonds payable in depreciated currencies in the expectation of realizing enormous profits when exchange values return to normal. Certain concerns in this country, the department said are offering for sale national, municipal and industrial issues which represent only a small fraction of their normal exchange value. This, of their normal exchange value. This, and the case with normal.

which represent only a small re-of their normal exchange value. This, the department add.d. is the case with the currencles of Germany. Austria, Po-land, Czecho-Slovakia, Rumania, Jugo land, Czecho-Slovakia, Rumania, Jugo Slavia and Hungary.

In some cases, the department said the prices at which these accurities are offered are unduly high in view of the actual rateof the given currency. There have been instances, the department asserted, where there has been great disparity between the sale price of the advertised securities in terms of deliars, and the price at which they could be purchased with American money in the foreign country.
